MORE MOTOR BOATS.

For Next Season.

Each week yachtsmen are now placing orders for new motor boats which are to be built and delivered in time for next season. E. A. Stout of this city has ordered a 35 foot launch for use off the Maine coast. The boat when finished will be a very handsome affair, the hull being built entirely of mahogany. The cockpit space will be unusually large and the engine, a six cylinder 60 horse-power affair, will be located forward compartment from the cockpit and the lever controls as well as the steering wheel will be attached to this builkhead. Mr. Stout has been guaranteed a speed of 22 miles an hour for this boat and a trial irip held recently showed a speed of close to 24 miles. The boat when delivered to its owner will be ready to serve him as comfortably and as readily as a modern automobile serves on land.

The New York A. Whatever advantage there was rested with Fred Hodgman, the runnerup in last year's amateur championship. He was high gun for the tournament cup when despite the cold wind he made the clean break of 25 from scratch. W. B. Ogden, Jr., was the holder of the leg and, Hodgman being the winner, became the challenger. The shootoff took place right away, Ogden having a handicap of one target, while Hodsman had the post of honor. The race was closely watched by those around. especially as Hodgman was noticed to have struck his form. It was very close work at the way through Hodgman winning but out by two targets and missing only one out of the string of 25. It was keen shooting in the two races for Hodgman, for he missed only the one out of 50 targets, Two other shooters scored 25 from scratch this cup, but as they were visitors they

Though the day was by no means favorable for sharp work, it was remarkable for the number of perfect scures nevertheless. As many as eight tallied the full 25 for the December cup, the leg going to R. M. Owen in the shootoff. The leg on the Haslin cup went to G. H. Abbott with a perfect tally, and O. C. Grinnell accounted for the club's special cup, making 25 with a handicap of one target. The full number of shooters did not go to the traps for the "ten pairs of doubles," the conditions being 29 targets from scratch. W. J. Young George Felix did the best work in the weekly shoot of the Crescent Athletic Club yesterday. In the contest for the J. F. James trophies the youthful gunner broke 25 straight targets and so not only took the leg but had his name placed upon the honor roll of the club. He was the only marksman to make a full score from scratch, although several of the other events were won by full scores. In fact in the shoot for the James prizes both c. A. Lockwood and C. R. James returned full scores of 25 targets. They, however, were shooting with handicaps and so could not oeat the winner.

Although it was exceptionally cold on the firing line there was a good sized field of enthusiasts at the Bay Ridge traps. The programme not only included the usual fixtures but in addition there was a shootoff in the team race for the leg on December 10. In the shoot last Saturday J. F. James and his partner, F. B. Stephenson, tied with C. A. Lockwood and F. S. Hyatt for the prize. The former team had no difficulty in not only defeating the Lockwood and Hyatt combination but also in scoring another leg yesterday.

Princeton Easily Defeats Pennsylvania at St. Nicholas Rink

at the St. Nicholas Skating Rink last night, but did not create a very favorable impression. She flirted with the champion Princetons and then in a game was defeated very easily, the Tigers scoring 7 goals and Pennsylvania failed to make a single tally. Some excuse was made for her woeful defeat on the score that the weather in Philadelphia had not been favorable for Philadelphia had not been favorable for hockey playing and the team was consequently much out of practice. The Princeton players on the other hand did well. The team work was good, the players shot well and accurately and for so early in the season played a fast game. If this team progresses as fast as it has started off it will make the other college teams hustle to keep up with it.

The first half ended with the score 4 to 0 in favor of Princeton. Blair made the first goal in four minutes. Then McKinney scored twice and the last goal was shot by Day. In the second half Kay scored twice and Day once. Blair was sent to the bench for two minutes for tripping. His was the only offence noticed by the umpires and no

Picked teams representing the clubs of ball League with those of Brooklyn oppos ing the Manhattan organizations met in a test match at Marquette Oval in Brooklyn yesterday afternoon to determine the se-lection of candidates for places on the New York eleven which will play in the interstate Eatch against the Pennsylvania League at Marquette Oval on December 28. The Brooklyn aggregation proved victorious yesterday by the score of 3 goals to 1. Most of the snow had been removed from the grounds in preparation for this test match, but nevertheless the footing was none too

In the first half the teams appeared to be well matched, each side scoring once. F. Maskell shot the first goal ten minutes after the start from a neat pass on the part of R O'Halloran. Ten minutes later R. Mac-Culloch equalized with a long shot. W. Ecker, the Hungarian international player who figured at centre forward, placed the Brooklyn team in the lead again very soon after the restart. His playing was conspicuous throughout, as was that of Maskell About the middle of the second half A Van de Weghe, outside right, tallied the third goal or the Brooklyn representatives after a long run. Steiger From No. 87 Furnishes a Surprise in Schoolboy Races.

The race for junior honors in the school boys' races yesterday at the St. Nicholas Rink went to Jacob Steiger of Public Schoo 87, a newcomer among the little speed mermark of 70 yards, but proved his efficiency by taking the lead before going half a lap and held it easily to the end. The two Gershall boys of Public School 186 furnished all the excitement in the race by skating the last lap like a team and finished almost together, A. Gershall, the elder boy, who started from scratch, being second. first time and was unable to leave the mark with his accustomed agility or he would probably have won the race. Morris Wood, the professional champion speed skater, subsequently took him in hand and in a few minutes gave him some suggestions which will be useful to the young racer in which will be useful to the young racer in future events.

The half mile event developed into a match race between Julian Rice of Brown School and Larry Barnett of De Witt Cinton High School. The latter, who holds the title of champion schoolboy racer, gave his rival 90 yards start and they finished so close together that Referee Cornelius Fellowes was unable to separate them and called it a dead heat. # "I Don't Know What I Would Do Without a Telephone" said a young lady, who came into one of our offices. "It serves me regardless of the season or of what I want to do. Just now I am using it for Christmas shopping, and with great success. All the shops take telephone orders, and some of them have wonderful telephone systems for the benefit of their customers.

One store that I know of even goes so far as to maintain a night force of telephone salespeople so that customers can shop by telephone at night as well as during the day. Isn't that great? It only goes to show what a truly wonderful thing telephone service is."

The telephone is of assistance in many ways during the busy holiday season.
